Moulins les Rainettes 4ha estate, organic, a labour of love by Belgian couple Jacque and Jill who came here in 2007 to pursue their dream of Saint Emilion from the Languedoc.
	Rouge	MERLOT 24 MOINS	14.5%	2010	IGP HAUT VALLE	Merlot 24 months in oak.		100% merlot from 4ha vineyard in the Haut Valley, behind Limoux. We loved this wine for it's purity of flavour and super ripe Pomerol or Saint Emilion style fruit. This 2010 is similar to some top old world wines, and reminds me even of some wines from the 1961 Bardeaux vintage. It is unfiltered and bottled from barrel so should be decanted, but this is no fault. Amazing wine for the price.	11.00€

GERES

COTES DE GASCOGNE, SW FRANCE. Home of Armagnac and now worthy good value wines.

Rouge	AMPELOMERYX				Pinot Noir, Syrah and Malbec	The Bérault family are several generations of growers in Gers region of SW France. This region sits happily between the sunny power of Languedoc and humid Atlantic. Increasing individual wines with their own range of varieties as well as some classics from Bordeaux and burgundy.	Ampelemeryx is the name of a bizarre prehistoric animal whose fossil remains have been found in Montreal du Gers close by. A cross between a deer and a Giraffe it is well named for this wine, itself a unique and unusual blend of totally different varieties. Pinot Noir of Burgundy, Malbec of Cahors	8.50€
Blanc	HARMONIE				Colombard, Sauvignon, Folle Blanche, Gros et Petit Manseng and Chardonnay		What a refreshing and interesting blend. BASQUES

An isolated and fiercely independent region with original wines. When the ex wine maker from Ch Petrus moves here it is because he knows something good is possible.

Rouge	LURUMEA 100% TANNAT	14.0%	2013	IROULEGUY	Tannat	Bordato is a natural wine maker, avoiding sulphur and preferring not to filter wines. He is also a legendary cider maker. He works with trees and vines spread-out across the region and works to preserve the old orchards.	Irouleguy is a tiny Appellation in the Basque region of France and is really unique. The local red variety is the Tannat. Lurumea is surprisingly concentrated, deeply coloured, with powerful acidity. Must be served with rich food or meaty steak. Apparently this is not cider but apple wine. We were charmed by its freshness and complexity. Lightly sparkling it will apparently age for 5 years or more.	12.00€

DOMAINE LA MIJANE

CABARDES Relative newcomer but already making waves. Organic winery and one of the closest producer to Carcassonne.

Rouge	ARPEGE	14.0%	2013	AOP Cabardes	Merlot Grenache	Recently acquired by new owners who are overseeing the transformation once again to a notable estate on the Canal du Midi	A harmonious blend of Merlot and Grenache that combines a fresh ripe Bordeaux note with the sunny fruit of Grenache.	8.90€
Blanc	Gewurztraminer	13.0%	2015	Cite de Carcassonne	Gewurztraminer		An exciting find, 100% Gewurztraminer from Carcassonne. Really delivers the rose petal and turkish delight notes, with lychee and apricot flavours and a nice drv finish. Great with smoked	7.90€
Gris	Pinot Gris de Gris	13.0%	2015	Cite de Carcassonne	Pinot Gris / Pinot Grigio		The palest possible rose we have ever encountered, a true Gris de Gris. Also unusually from Pinot Gris, not widely planted in the Languedoc. Very dry,	7.90€

SARRAT DE GOUNDY

Sarrat de Goundy, La Clape.

Blanc	Cuvee sans Titre No 5	14.0%	2015	Vin de France	Viognier and Grenache Blanc		Described as Collection Particulière if just 1800 bottles, Olivier has tried to make a pretty good S Rhone style white, coming close to Chateauneuf as possible. Hedonistic, complex and very satisfying.	15.00€
Rouge	Cuvee sans Titre No 4	14.0%	2014	Vin de France	100% Syrah	Young wine maker, Olivier Calix has taken over the family business and pushed it into the 21st century with an occasional nod back to the Romans with his Amphora. Located a stone's throw from Narbonne their vines are on the rugged hills above Narbonne Plage and on the sunny stony plateaux. More or less classic local varieties but some inspired wines. An estate to watch closely	Also just 1800 bottles, this time the wine sees no oak but is aged in terracotta amphora. Use of sulphur is kept to a minimum and result in highly expressive wines which are very rewarding. Unfiltered.	24.00€
Rouge	Combe aux Louvre	14.0%	2013	La Clape AOP	Carignan, Grenache, Mourvedre and Syrah		A hugely enjoyable wine that is a perfect expression of the old vines of La Clape. These wines are among the oldest of the Languedoc and were highly prized. The renaissance of the region has been driven from La Clape.	22.00€
Rouge	Le Moulin	13.5%	2014	La Clape AOP	GSC Blend		Le Moulin is a good statement of the reds of La Clape. Not too heavy or heady, it has fine bright fruit and good weight making it a perfect match for BBQ or pasta.	7.20€
Blanc	Le Marin	13.0%	2014	La Clape AOP	Bourboulenc, Grenache Blanc, Viognier, Macabeu and Roussanne		Bourboulenc is a variety very local to La Clape and well adapted the sea climate. La Clape might be the sunniest place in Languedoc but it is not the hottest and the sea breeze ad humidity are a challenge for growers. Made to serve with seafood.	7.20€
Blanc, Rose and Rouge	Les Petits Canon	13.0%	2015	IGP	A bit of everything		OK, lets not get hung up on varieties here. This range of dry house wines are all with screw caps, pretty labels and made for summer picnics. Delicious and one of our best sellers.	6.00€
